

The Holy Lands January 2015

Bethlehem at Night

Jerusalem Institute of Multicultural Studies

Our Mission

The Jerusalem Institute of Multicultural Studies seeks to be an agent of positive change in the Holy Lands by promoting peace and reconciliation through education, intercultural dialogue and awareness.

The Father's House Bethlehem Directors
Pastors Victor and Melisa Lopez

Experience: Sea of Galilee ~ Calvary
Mt. of Temptation ~ Dead Sea
Wailing Wall ~ Upper Room ~ The Old City ~ Outreaches to the Messianic Jewish and Arab Christian Communities ~
And so much more!

Program Costs

This three week intensive study program will cost $1,875 USD

Program fees include:

- Airport transfers *
- Clean and comfortable lodging (multiple person occupancy)
- Single occupancy accommodations available for an additional fee
- Breakfast and dinner daily (lunches not included)
- Materials and course handouts
- Travel through the Holy Lands including admissions and transportation
- Unique outreach opportunities
- Certificate upon completion
- Memories that will last a lifetime

NOTE: We are able to help coordinate group air travel at reasonable rates upon request

* Airport transfers coordinated for all students arriving and departing on designated days/times as part of program fee

Contact us for additional program details, application process and deadlines.

gina@thefathershouseint.com

Or call 1.414.217.8057 (Gina)

www.jerusalemstituteofmulticulturalstudies.com

Bourland

Omolewa

Khalil

January 2015 Curriculum

- Arabic Language For Beginners
- Israeli/Palestinian Conflict
- Middle Eastern Biblical Culture
- History of Old & New Testament

Instructors

Our January 2015 program instruction will feature a variety of instructors led by Pastor Lisa Bourland and Professor Michael Omolewa.

Pastor Lisa Bourland is the Co-Founder and Director of The Father's House International with established ministries in Guatemala, Ukraine, Zimbabwe, India and Bethlehem. She also serves as the Senior Pastor of The Father's House Church in Henderson, Kentucky. Pastor Lisa is the co-founder of the Jerusalem Institute of Multicultural Studies and serves as President.

Professor Michael Omolewa is a pioneer of adult education and the leading education historian in his native Africa. He is the ambassador and Permanent Delegate of Nigeria to the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO). As a distinguished scholar, civil servant and diplomat his contributions impact local and national educational activities in Africa and throughout the world. As a policy maker, Omolewa has dedicated his life to adult education and the promotion of literacy for the under-served and even unacknowledged populations in the world. Professor Michael Omolewa is also an author, professor and Jerusalem Institute of Multicultural Studies board member.

Exciting local special guest speakers with unique personal perspective of the region will also be featured during this session.

Study, travel, and experience the Holy Lands! Stop reading about it! Live it!

Program Dates

January 3 – 22, 2015

Learn about the language, culture and history of the Holy Lands in a classroom setting and then enjoy venturing out to actually see, taste and experience it! Practice your Arabic with local speakers! See firsthand the Biblical and historical places you've just studied! Love and support the precious people of this complex region! We can almost guarantee, you will never be the same ...

Where the nations gather!